

CONVIVIUM MUSICUM

CHOIR FOR RENAISSANCE MUSIC

Scott Metcalfe, director

les Pseaumes de David (vol. II)

Following up on one of Convivium's most successful and well-received programs of recent years, this concert features an entirely new selection of works inspired by the memorable tunes and elegant poetry of the 16th-century Genevan Psalter, a translation of the complete psalter into French verse by Clément Marot and Théodore de Bèze, with melodies by Loys Bourgeois and others. These captivating metrical psalms and winning tunes inspired many polyphonic settings, including masterworks by Claude le Jeune and Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck. Our program presents a lovely assortment of Genevan Psalter music by Le Jeune, Sweelinck, and the less-known Claude Goudimel, and also several wonderful Latin motets by Sweelinck.
